

Who Cares

Oh I thought I was back home
When I walked up the stairs
And you stood there
With a smile so careless no regrets
A fragile eagle eye, you had me
Felt like lullabies and dreams
Sweet and sassy all it seems Like getting in cause you let me in
But you let me out again

But then
When I chose to stay
Again I had to walk away
And I sing

Who - Who
Who cares if I'm leaving
Who dares to believe in
But I sing

Oh I wish this could be real
That you're falling for me
And you feel free
With a girl so careless, no regrets
A fragile broken soul, you got me
Felt like summer, spring and rain
Good and naughty it became
A miracle that you let me in
Cause you let me out again

And then
When I chose to stay
Again I had to walk away
And I say

Who - Who

Molly's Moon

"Dusk"

Oh I thought it was
Love that happened cause
We were good and young
But what have we become
Now I feel it was
Only for a toss
Cause we should learn to leave
Well that's what you believe
And I say

Who - Who
Who cares if I'm leaving

Molly's Moon

"Dusk"
