

Heavy Hearts

Two heavy hearts
Too heavy to research the start
It's all loaded up on my mind
I recently can't be apart
We're (aus T1) two broken souls
Too broken to be just repaired
And I won't be the one who's there
Cause I'm the one who's scared

Of you
We can't see nothing at all
You
We're just rising up to fall
A Burden
a light hole
We're just rising up to fall

Two minds in blue
Despondent we sit on the stairs
We can't feel the touch of ourselves
We know that nobody cares
We're two lovers
That slowly drifting apart
And I won't be the one who waits
Afraid to be the losing part

Of you
We can't see nothing at all
You
We're just rising up to fall
A Burden
a light hole
We're just rising up to fall

La lala lala lalaa la La lala lala lalaa la

You
We can't see nothing at all
You
We're just rising up to fall
A Burden, a light hole
We're just rising up to fall
